The First National Bank of Burns, Oregon

Why a National Bank is the Best

REASON IV: A National Bank is required to submit to the Government and publish in its city an exact statement of its condition five times a year.

BANK: Pay your obligations by check and you will always have valid receipts for the amounts thus paid. If you are not a patron of this institution, let this be your invitation to become one.

gree of Fillmore Chief the trotting stallion.

Peter Carmer, the timber cruiser and real estate man, has been quite sick the past week confined to his rooms. He is improving we are glad to state.

Jason Bennett was in from his Welcomville ranch Thursday. He reports crops looking well in his section and his neighbors are all happy.

The First National Bank ad this week contains the fourth and undoubtedly one of the strongest reasons why a National Bank is best Read it.

O. W. Porter the old time sheep man of Eastern Oregon, is over from his home at Huntington. Mr Porter's health is still poor, although he looks better than on his former visits.

A. G. Gotchy returned the first of the week from the railroad survey camp where he has been working. He has accepted a position on Jim Mahon's Cow creek ranch and has moved out with his family.

You want the best medicines that can be prepared, regardless of cost. Come to the City Drug Store with your prescriptions and you will always get it—and the cost will be reasonable and fair.

The weather has turned quite warm since the big rains of last week and vegetation is making a fine growth. The prospects for fruit are quite flattering and the grain crop never looked better at this time of the year.

I. L. Poujade came over from Creek Monday, bringing in Charley Lamb for medical treatment. The young man had the misfortune to cut his left thumb quite severely while splitting wood.

Miss Clayte Burrow arrived home Wednesday evening from Baker City where she has been teaching.
The young lady will remain in this city indefinitely and possibly teach in the public school during the coming year.

Messrs Carter and Scott, two of a large party from Walla Walla, Wash., who came here looking for locations, have started on their return with a bunch of horses which they will market there. They will likely return later in the season.
Others of the same party have filed on land and will make their homes here.

The Electric Light Co., has transferred the plant to the grist mill and now use water power.

Those knowing themselves indebted to J. L. Sitz are requested to call at the store at Lawen and settle on or before July 1st.

Bill Burrow has been sick at his home in this city since last Sunday.
Yesterday he was able to be about the streets but his step was not so sprightly as of yore and his clothes don't seem to fit him.

Having sold the furniture business, C. A. Byrd will now turn his attention to painting and paper hanging and solicits a share of your patronage. He will also conduct a cabinet and repair shop.

The many safeguards we provide against possible error, supplementing the extreme care with which we always compound prescriptions, insure the positively accurate RIGHTNESS of all medicines prepared at Horton's.

The weather has moderated the past few days and some credit it to the near approach of the election.
Things are warming up some politically and every man is confident of victory—what a difference next Tuesday when the returns come in.

Sam Mothershead and Joe Rector returned last Saturday from a tour of the southern part of the county in the interest of their candidacy for clerk and judge respectively. Both were well pleased with the prospects of election.
They have gone to other points.

Mrs. Thos. Morrison and little son and Miss Alice Morrison have been over from their Canyon City home visiting friends. Mrs. Morrison has gone out to Metechan station to visit. Miss Alice remaining here the guest of old time friends.

county, living adjoining neighbors to the Defenbaughs.

John Vance and I. L. Poujade were in the city a day or two conferring with John Gilcrest on matters concerning the estate of the late John Devine. These three gentlemen were appointed the appraisers of the estate.

Chief Engineer Waggoner of the railroad survey, and his draftsman, Mr. Young, expect to leave in a day or two for Bend in order to be nearer the surveying parties. Mr.
Waggoner stated this morning that he had no particular information for publication, as he had nothing definite as to future movements other than the general survey. It is quite probable his office will again be opened in this city later.

THE CITY DRUG STORE
HAS BEEN THOROUGHLY RE-NOVATED AND REMODELED, and our immense new stock has arrived, therefore we are better able to accommodate the public than ever before. No matter what kind of drugstore goods you want, this is a good place to buy them. If you want pure drugs and medicines; if you want toilet articles and sick-room necessities; if you want perfumes; or if you want any of the thousand and one different things carried by a first-class, up-to-date drug-store, get them of us and they will be good. Every thing is good in this store. The quality is always good; our service is always good.
We would like to have your drug store trade, and will do every thing we can to make you enjoy trading with us. We try never to let a customer go out of our store dissatisfied. Our aim is to please every one.
